Create your leadership legacy statement

Declaration of how you'd like to live your life and impact others. It's different from goals, which are about achievements. The objective of a Personal Legacy Statement is to clearly state your principles, how you intend to treat others, how you plan to care for your spiritual needs, and how you will share your legacy.

Sample personal legacy statement

I will approach my life in a thoughtful and intelligent manner. I will treat people with compassion, kindness, and fairness. I will approach each day with energy, creativity, and humor. I will not forget to relax. I will keep the dance of delight in my life. I will not work too hard, and I will give time to literature and life.

My Family Role: I will conduct myself in family life in a manner that enriches our home by my presence. My family will be happy when I'm home. I will be a leader to my extended family.

My Work: I will influence people with example, in walking my talk, in principle-centered living.

My Role as a Citizen of the World: I hold the following principles: By the Grace of God; Forgiveness; Empowering Others; Growing a Garden of Empowerment; Diversity of Race and Culture Is a Gift; I will sustain life in physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual areas. To forgive myself more, and get on with doing good work.

—A. Roger Merrill

Sample personal legacy statement

In order for me to agree to a performance, it must:

1. Educate others
2. Entertain others
3. Make enough money I am not in want
4. Be something my grandmother would find respectable
5. Build healthy relationships

—Paul W. Draper

Sample personal legacy statement

To find happiness, fulfillment, and value in living, I will seek out and experience all of the pleasures and joys that life has to offer. My core values are not limitations restraining me on this hedonistic quest for fun. Rather, they provide a framework for identifying, pursuing, and achieving those pleasures that last the longest and are the most satisfying. The greatest joy of all is being worthy of the respect and admiration of family, friends, and business associates.
